

ISSF EDUCATION AND AWARENESS

THE FOLLOWING PROVIDES IMPORTANT LINKS AND CONTACT INFORMATION TO ASSIST YOU IN EDUCATING YOURSELF IN ANTI-DOPING

If you are an athlete, a national anti-doping education officer, a coach, Athlete Support Personnel, a Parent or any person who may benefit from anti-doping education this information is for you:

ADEL: ANTI-DOPING E-LEARNING

The anti-doping e-learning platform (ADEL) offers access to all topics related to clean sport and anti-doping. It offers courses for athletes, coaches, doctors, administrators, parents and anyone interested in learning more about anti-doping and protecting the values of clean sport.

You are all encouraged to register TODAY and start following many of the highly informative modules, guides, courses and programs that are available Anti-Doping Education and Learning \(wada-ama.org\).

ADEL contains extremely useful and informative eLearning documents that can be of assistance of Athletes Coaches, Athlete Support Personnel and Parents to become more knowledgeable on anti-doping.

Click here to find out all the information that is currently available on ADEL. getfile.aspx \(issf-sports.org\)

How to obtain anti-doping education documentation in your own language?

In addition to the information available online via ADEL, to obtain antidoping materials in your respective language please contact your NADO or RADO (national or regional antidoping organisation) directly.

- If you do not have their contact information, you can contact iNADO: the Institute of National Anti-Doping Organisations who should be able to provide answers: info@inado.org
- You can also contact your regional WADA office by sending an email to info@wada-ama.org. There are WADA offices in Europe, Asia/Oceania, Africa and Latin America.

If you still are unable to find your NADO or RADO contact information or need help with ADEL, contact Doris Fischl at doris@issf-sports.org and ISSF will assist you.
