Changwon (KOR), 29 August 2018

ISSF Press Release N. 45/2018
The 52nd ISSF World Championship in all events is ready to start, media guide available for download

Changwon (KOR), 29 August 2018 - The 52nd edition of the ISSF World Championship in all events is about to start in Changwon: the competition will go down from August 31st to September 15th. Most of the events will take place at the newly built Changwon International Shooting Range — the same venue that hosted this year's ISSF World Cup in April — while the 300m events will be contested at the Jinhae Naval Shooting Range.

A total of 1806 shooters will participate in the competition, representing 90 National Olympic Committees and piling up 3457 starts in 66 events and five disciplines: Rifle, Pistol, Shotgun, Running Target and Target Sprint.

The first titles of the championship will be awarded on September 2nd in the 10m Air Rifle Mixed Team and 10m Air Pistol Mixed Team events, two of the three new events that were recently added to the Tokyo 2020 Olympic Programme. Indeed, the ISSF World Championship in Changwon will also distribute a total of 60 Olympic quota places in the 15 Olympic Shooting events: four per each of the 12 individual events and two per each of the three mixed team ones.

The complete schedule of the championship is available here.

A comprehensive media guide is now available for free download: the guide includes a wide preview of the 15 Olympic Shooting events, along with a section dedicated to statistics and to the history of the ISSF World Championship.
