

Clarification to Rule 7.4.5e

“Weights attached to the rifle fore-end may not extend lower than 90mm below the centre-line of the barrel and no further forward than 700mm from the back (rear) end of the system. Any such weight must be incapable of being converted into a bipod for use in supporting the rifle, when placed down after shooting or between positions in the 3-position events”.